

BYRON

"A Place of Caring"

Let us not become tired of doing good; let us do good to all people, especially to those in the family of believers.

Galatians 6:9-10

You who are a protector will warn friends of coming trouble, will comfort friends during present stress, and will forgive friends for past mistakes. You encourage them to go on.