IMPACTING A VICTIM SERIES

SEXUAL ASSUALT

Amnon - 2 Samuel 13

1. I would think that Amnon grew up in a complicated family. (2 Samuel 3:1)
 - a. Who was his father? _____
 - b. Who was his mother? _____
2. When King David was living in Hebron, he had at least 7 wives there, at least six sons and at least one daughter. They were all step-brothers. What impact does this family dynamic have on a boy's concept of marriage and sex?

3. At that time, they probably all lived together in the king's compound (palace). They were not all blood-related; some were more favorites to the king than others. Amnon was the oldest son. How do you think he behaved while trying to survive?

4. King David was at war at the time. (2 Samuel 3:6). He was gone from the palace. The mothers were in charge of the kids. The royal kids had a lot of down time with no responsibilities and a feeling of "privileged". How does that affect a son?

5. Right in the middle of Amnon's adolescence, what happened with his dad? (2 Samuel 11) _____
6. That episode traumatized the entire family and the palace. Amnon's concept of sexual purity was destroyed by his dad. Amnon's sexual desires were exploding out of control. What happened? (2 Samuel 13:1-21)

7. Amnon's sexual needs (possibly addictions) caused him to do what?
